Angels of Vos

Michael the Archangel
 oil on canvas 2012
 24 x 36 in.

With these oils on canvas and oil on granite paintings Daiv has created a series of portraits. These abstract portraits of ideas, of the intangible becoming tangible provide the viewer with the opportunity to participate, to flex their own creativity. The expanding energies of these works radiate unconditionally, providing a beacon, an anchor, something you could hold in your hand. Daiv reduces the chaos of our world down to its simplest of forms, inviting us to look closely. Their energies may sooth or excite, but regardless of the viewers response, these works will offer as many questions as they do answers.

Artist Bio:

Daiv Mowbray is a native of Waterloo, Ontario. He studied painting, and art history earning a BFA from the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design (where he studied with Ron Shuebrook). Mowbray received a Masters of Fine Art from the University of Guelph in 1994 (where he studied along side of David Urban, Doug Kirton). He has been exhibiting professionally since 1983 with commercial and public galleries from Vancouver to Halifax, Canada and parts of Europe including Barcelona Spain.

Daiv has received numerous awards and grants for his work, including a Canada Council for the Arts award. His original works have been included in various public, corporate and private collections.
